

Call for Papers

Annual Conference Swedish Network for European Studies in Economics and Business 2021

November 23-24, Lund, Sweden.

Keynote Speakers

Jakob Roland Munch, University of Copenhagen

Valerie Smeets, Aarhus University

All papers relating to trade and economic integration, broadly defined, will be considered for presentation. Examples of interesting issues include, but are not limited to:

- Trade policy responses to the pandemic
- The causes and effects of Brexit
- Supply chain shocks
- The effect of border closures on trade in goods and services
- Carbon tariffs
- Regional v. multilateral integration
- Deep integration
- Sanctions
- Trade integration and labor market outcomes
- The economics of vaccine supply chains

Proposals

Please submit your paper (full paper or long abstract) to snee@ehl.lu.se no later than October 1. Papers within economics and business administration are prioritized, but we also welcome submissions from other fields, such as political science and law, if they are relevant for the theme of the conference.

Summary of conference details

Arranged by: The Swedish Network for European Studies in Economics and Business.

Conference organizer: Maria Persson.

Time: November 23-24, 2021.

Location: Lund, Sweden.

In person: The plan is to hold the conference in person in Lund. Should the pandemic situation worsen so that strict restrictions are re-introduced, we have contingency plans to change into an online format.

Conference language: English.

Costs: The conference – including lunches and dinners – is free of charge for all participants. We will also cover costs for travel and accommodation for all people whose paper is accepted for presentation.

Intended audience: In addition to academic scholars, including PhD students, the conference warmly welcomes people from the policy community, such as NGOs or government agencies.

Deadline for paper submissions: October 1, 2021.

Notification of acceptance: October 12, 2021.

Contact: Please send all submissions and inquiries to snee@ehl.lu.se.